The truth of the gospel is still contained within vintage faith statements. Within creeds and catechisms we can have our faith strengthened, our knowledge broadened, and our love for Jesus deepened. In The Good News We Almost Forgot, Kevin DeYoung explores the Heidelberg Catechism and writes 52 brief chapters on what it has shown him. The Heidelberg is largely a commentary on the Apostle's Creed, the Ten Commandments, and the Lord's Prayer, and deals with man's guilt, God's grace, and ...

Kevin DeYoung's commentary on the Heidelberg catechism, The Good News We Almost Forgot, is one of the most devotionally satisfying books I've read in years. No doubt this has something to do with the setting in which I read it - over a wonderfully sunny two days in Heidelberg, dipping in and out of the Universität (where it originated), the Schloss (where Luther's famous disputation happened forty five years earlier), and the Heiliggeistkirche (where the first question is draped over the ...
